Introducing Duo Security Two-Factor Authentication at FHSU!

Action Required: Read this message to become informed about the upcoming rollout of Duo two-factor authentication at FHSU. No other immediate action is necessary.

What is Duo Security?

Duo Security is a company that provides a cloud-based software service that utilizes two-factor authentication to ensure secure access to services and data.

What is two-factor authentication?

Two-factor authentication provides a second layer of security to any type of login. By requiring two different channels of authentication, we can protect user logins from remote attacks that may exploit stolen usernames and passwords. Learn more by watching this short YouTube video! [Remember to hover over the link and make sure it really goes to YouTube!]

The factors may include:

Something you know:

- A unique username and password.

Something you have:

- A smartphone with an app to approve authentication requests.

Why do we need two-factor authentication?

Login credentials are more valuable than ever and are increasingly easy to compromise. Over 90% of breaches today involve compromised usernames and passwords. Two-factor authentication enhances the security of your account by using a secondary device to verify your identity. This prevents anyone but you from accessing your account, even if they know your password.

How will Duo change my login experience?

When logging in to an FHSU application protected by Duo, you will still enter your TigerNetID username and password. After inputting your login information, Duo requires you to complete a method of second-factor authentication. Duo does not replace or require you to change your TigerNetID username and password. Think of Duo as an extra layer of security added to your pre-existing login method.

Who is included in Duo Security?

Currently employed faculty, virtual college faculty, adjunct faculty, staff, student employees, and graduate assistants WILL be required to use two-factor authentication with Duo Security in the near future.

The following people will NOT enroll in Duo Security: students, retired employees, visiting faculty, volunteers, and employees who do not use a computer in their job functions (parking attendants, gate workers, senior companions, etc.).

What if I don't have a smart phone?

The Duo Mobile app is the preferred second factor of authentication; however, you can also use phone calls and text messages to any phone number. We'll talk more about Duo Mobile and other authentication options in our next email.

When is this happening?

We will begin sending out enrollment emails the week of July 23. These emails will be sent in waves, starting with on-campus staff. Everyone eligible to enroll in Duo Security should receive an enrollment email by the end of August. Two-factor authentication will be optional at first, allowing you to choose when you start using it. Two-factor authentication will be required for many FHSU technology resources starting in February 2019, for employees only. We are not enrolling students in Duo at this time, with the exception of student employees.

What happens next

We'll expand our group of pilot users this week, so you may receive an email asking you to be a pilot user.

Watch for future communication on the rollout of Duo, or visit our Duo web page to view any future updates. www.fhsu.edu/duo

New VoiceThread Interactive Video Commenting

What separates good interaction from transformational interaction? Authentic engagement between people - student to teacher and peer to peer, not student to computer. We're always working to make those interpersonal interactions easier in a VoiceThread.

Now you can insert your comments into a video exactly where you want them. Comments will appear in the video's timeline as a small blue nib, allowing you to see where others have inserted them as well. The best part is that you don't have to learn anything new. It just works.

You also have the option to pause while you are recording and then pick up that same comment right where you left off. After you click on "Stop Recording", just click on "Record More" to keep going.

Let VoiceThread bring your online conversations to life by moving beyond text-only comments. Use your voice, video, and integrated annotations to engage and connect your students, person to person.

You can watch a demonstration at the following link: <https://voicethread.wistia.com/medias/rhmlhz3qd3j>

If you have any questions, please contact TILT at tigerlearn@fhsu.edu.
